by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 39, Chapter 17, Part 13, is amended by adding the following as a new appropriately designated section:

(a)(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any law enforcement officer may carry firearms at all times and in all places within the state of Tennessee, on-duty or off-duty, regardless of the officer's regular duty hours or assignments, except as provided by subdivision (3), federal law, lawful orders of court or the written directives of the executive supervisor of the employing agency.

(2) The authority conferred by this section is expressly intended to and shall supersede restrictions placed upon law enforcement officers' authority to carry firearms by other sections within this part.

(3) The authority conferred by this section shall not extend to a law enforcement officer:

(A) Who is permitted by agency policy to carry a firearm while consuming beer or an alcoholic beverage or while under the influence of beer, an alcoholic beverage, or a controlled substance; or

(B) Who is not in the actual performance of such officer's duties and is within the confines of an establishment where beer or alcoholic beverages are served for consumption on the premises as the sole or primary product when the establishment is considered as a whole.

(4) For purposes of this section, a "law enforcement officer" means a person who is a full-time employee of the state in a position authorized by the laws of this state to carry a firearm and to make arrests for violations of some or all of the laws of this state, or a full-time police officer who has been certified by the peace officer standards and training commission.

SECTION 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2000, the public welfare requiring it.
